WILSON WARNS OF U. S. PERIL

Treaty Doesn't Affect Prices, Asserts Johnson

PRESIDENT ASSAILED IN PACT BATTLE

Californian Says President Made Victim By Old World Diplomats

JUST BROUGHT BACK SECRET AGREEMENTS

Declares Wilson Had Same Laws Six Months Ago to Fight Living Cost

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12.—Senator Johnson of California was highly pleased today when he saw the testimony of William Bullitt before the foreign relations committee in Washington.

"I believe it is a fact that the people do not understand the treaty," he said.

Senator Johnson, who, in his attacks on the treaty is trailing the president, referred to the statement by Bullitt as to what Secretary Lansing had told him.

Appearing before the City Club, Johnson denied action of the senate on the treaty had anything to do with the high cost of living. He declared the President had the same laws he now has six months ago and did nothing with them.

"I speak for Americanism," Johnson declared, "and not in the defense of the intriguing diplomacy of Europe and Asia."

"Every nation in the world was represented at the peace conference by astute men who fought only for nationalistic aims—that is every country except ours. They got exactly what they started out to get."

"Our representative took these internationalistic views and now he wants us, under Article 10 of the covenant, to guarantee just what the diplomats of Europe agreed in secret what they would give each other."

Senator Johnson was today developing very definite line of attack on the President's demand for unqualified acceptance of the peace treaty.

Insisting that the treaty was drawn purely on the lines of the secret engagements entered into among the big powers before America entered the war, he points out that Article X of the covenant means that the United States guarantees this secret bartering of peoples and territories for all time.

A big crowd, packing every inch of space in Tomlinson Hall at Indianapolis last night, rose and shouted its approval of the senator's statement that America would not be a party to such infamy.

Before the Indianapolis audience he drew a dramatic picture of Balfour, Viviani and other foreign statesmen and diplomats standing before the senate after our entrance into the war and talking of the rights of free peoples and other democratic principles for which America was fighting.

"And while they stood there and our hearts throbbed at the thought that these men had in their minds, what we had in ours, they had their inside pockets bulging with secret treaties carving up the world," Johnson shouted. "Such duplicity is unexampled in the history of the world. But when the permit seeks to keep up the duplicity by binding our sons to guarantee it, I say it shall not be."

Crowd Cries "No"
He asked the crowd whether it was willing, since the other powers of the world were bankrupt, that American boys should go out and police the world. The answer was a resounding "no" that fairly shook the building. Starting in Chicago and developing the theme further in Indianapolis, Johnson is also driving over an at-

"Johnny" Pershing To Get Old Time Welcome Home

General Pershing Has Just Returned To This Country From France But His Gold Braid and Dignity Won't Keep Childhood Friends From Calling Him "Johnny"

Linn County, Mo., Boyhood Friends Will Greet War Hero Soon

LACLEDE, Mo., Sept. 12.—"Johnny" Pershing is coming home and Linn county is a beehive.

Knighted and titled by European crowned heads; honored and glorified by President Wilson and congress and praised and feted by the nation, General Pershing will be welcomed back to his birthplace. The date is not definite. General Pershing, responding to Mayor Edmund B. Allen's telegram, "Laclede, your old home, your boyhood friends and Linn county are calling you," replied, "I have heard the call. Will be there soon after my arrival in the United States."

And then Laclede went to work preparing the homecoming. When "Johnny" comes home to Laclede it will be a simple affair. There'll be no Caesar's victorious return to Rome. "He's going to be just plain Johnny," and that is just what he will want to be," Mayor Allen said, giving the keynote of the celebration. "Lord knows he's been 'generalized' enough by this time, and 'Johnny' is going to sound powerfully good to him."

So Laclede is planning, singing, shouting, handshaking and music and much oratory followed by a fried chicken dinner "on the ground" when Johnny's in town.

The Pershing family will reunite after the celebration. James Pershing, a brother of Chicago; their two sisters, Miss May Pershing and Mrs. Besie Butler of Lincoln, Neb., will meet again in the old Pershing home, here.

Unrest Cure Will Be Found In Work, States Vanderlip

SAN PEDRO, Sept. 12.—The cure for unrest will be found in work, Frank A. Vanderlip, former president of the National City Bank, told San Pedro business men at a smoker given for him here last night. Vanderlip is stopping at his Palos Verdes ranch near here.

Vanderlip declared the United States has a big advantage in its control of raw materials and everyone must bend all efforts toward production. He touched on the European labor situation and declared it wouldn't surprise him if England has a labor and perhaps a socialist government in two years.

MANUFACTURERS FEAR BIG SUGAR SHORTAGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—Forty-two sugar manufacturers predicted a shortage of sugar before January 1 that would close candy factories and refineries. Grocers have, without federal authorization, limited sales to two pounds.

Manufacturers charged Southern California factories with holding their beet stocks for higher prices, saying if these supplies were released the shortage would be averted. They telegraphed a plea to the sugar equalization board in New York.

7000 TROOPS CHECK RIOTS; HUGE STRIKE NOW AWAITED

Boston Is Orderly, But One Youth Is Killed In Raid At Jamaica Plains; Vote On Walkout Kept Secret

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—Boston was orderly today—the third since the police strike began. The seven thousand troops patrolling the streets of the city apparently had the situation in hand.

There was no rioting during the night. In Jamaica Plains, Henry Grote, 18, was shot and killed by soldiers in a raid on a dice game.

Whether a general strike of all labor will be called in sympathy with the striking police was still uncertain early today. Delegates representing all trades unions voted on the general strike question at a meeting of the central labor union last night, but the result of the vote was not made public.

The matter of calling a general strike, if such was voted today, remained in the hands of the executive committee of the Central Labor Union, which would have the power to set a date for a general walkout.

In the meantime all unions affiliated with the Central union which have not taken a final vote on the general strike question, have been ordered to make known their intentions within a few days.

Labor delegates to the meeting last night blamed officialdom for the police strike.

May Call on Governor
Following a conference with Mayor Peters yesterday, in which he made it plain that the striking police may expect no compromise as far as he is concerned, the executive committee of the Central Labor Union was expected to call upon Governor Coolidge today.

The governor is in full control of the situation, in his capacity as commander-in-chief of the state militia. The city officials and the striking policemen apparently were no nearer an agreement today than when the strike started. No concerted move to end the strike had been made by Mayor Peters or Police Commissioner Curtis, pending the complete restoration of order throughout the city. Leaders of the policemen reiterated their statements that they will hold out for recognition of their union.

A meeting of all members of the Boston Telephone Operators' Union will be held tonight to discuss a referendum vote of the union as to whether they will join a sympathy strike to aid the striking policemen.

A machine gun and a full crew were stationed in Scully Square today, the scene of most of the rioting.

Street cars in the South Boston section ran with double crews last night and early today on half-time schedule.

Like Military Barracks
The city hall today presented the appearance of a military barracks. The old council chamber was filled with army cots, on which state troopers were sleeping with full equipment beside them. These men are part of the forces that are patrolling the business section of the city.

During the night pedestrians are required to keep three paces out from buildings and anyone who stops to look in shop windows is ordered away. Practically all of the larger shops have armed guards pacing back and forth in front of the building, while many owners have taken the precaution of placing powerful searchlights in alleys behind the buildings.

The novel spectacle of cavalry clattering through Boston's narrow streets was added to by a number of Yankee division veterans who, in the uniforms they wore in France, did duty in the downtown streets.

PAYMENTS BY CARRANZA IN U.S. WILL BE UNDER PROBE

Senator Fall Says Efforts Will Be Made to See If Supporters Getting Paid Following Doheny's Story

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Senator Fall, chairman of the sub-committee investigating Mexican affairs, declared today every effort will be made to learn if supporters of Carranza on this side of the border are receiving money from the Mexican president.

"Any payments of which the committee can learn will be traced to their source," he said. "I do not wish to make any charges against those who may have been in Carranza's employ, but the people are entitled to know about it."

The sub-committee hearings today are dependent on the meeting of the foreign relations committee, a special session of which has been called. Edward J. Doheny, president of the Mexican Petroleum Company, today was having prepared a photographic copy of a draft he produced on the witness stand late yesterday, to be put into the records.

Presented By Dr. Tupper
This draft, which he testified was made in payment of port taxes to the Mexican treasurer-general by the Huasteca Petroleum Company, was presented for payment in New York by Dr. Henry Allen Tupper, according to an endorsement on the back of it. Tupper is pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, and, according to testimony, was active in support of Carranza's claim for recognition by the American government.

The draft was endorsed by the treasurer-general "pay to the order of Senator Henry Allen Tupper for value received."

No testimony was offered to show the signature was Tupper's, nor were any accusations made against him.

Doheny, in a lengthy story of the development of the Tampico oil fields, which he discovered, asserted:

"That American oil producers in Mexico are not supporting any factions, and that levies collected by bandits are paid with the full knowledge of this government."

U. S. Needs Outside Oil
"America must look to outside sources of petroleum production to carry out her maritime plans."

"Americans in the oil regions of Mexico have bettered conditions and wages. Carranza is virtually practicing confiscation by refusing permits to drill on lands legally purchased."

The committee is endeavoring to subpoena Edward J. De Bekker, public representative of the League of Free Nations' Association. This is the organization that charged in an open letter to President Wilson that oil interests are supporting banditry and are endeavoring to bring about intervention.

VICTORIA GIVES FINE WELCOME TO FLEET

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 12.—The United States battleships New Mexico and Arkansas crossed the straits of Juan De Fuca this morning on their way to join the remainder of the fleet entering Puget Sound.

Victoria gave Secretary Daniels and Admiral Rodman a fine welcome yesterday, for no visit on this scale had ever before been made by the American fleet to any British North Pacific port. The entire city turned out to cheer the visitors as guns from the Yankee vessels replied to the official salute from the shore batteries.

Premier Oliver led the welcoming party. A scene of marked enthusiasm occurred at the Canadian club banquet last night.

Work, Economize, Cut Prices, To End High Cost of Living

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—"Let's get to work," said President Charles H. Sabin of the Guaranty Trust company of New York, emphasizing to the United Press today his opinions regarding "the most vital problem confronting the public—the high cost of living."

Three remedies are available, he said, as follows:

- 1—Greater production.
- 2—Economy.
- 3—Elimination of exorbitant prices.

Sabin believes these are the chief remedies for the reason that the basic causes of the high cost of living are:

- 1—World's shortage of necessities.
- 2—Extravagance.
- 3—Profiteering.

LANSING THINKS PACT MAY FAIL, SAYS BULLITT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—"If the senate understands and the American people understand this treaty, it will be defeated."

This according to William C. Bullitt, testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations committee today, was the statement made to him by Secretary of State Lansing May 19, 1919.

Lansing he said, went on to say: "But I wonder if they will understand what it lets us in for? It is my personal opinion that Senator Knox probably will really understand it and Senator Lodge will, but Lodge's position would be purely political. Senator Knox might instruct the people."

Previous to this testimony concerning Lansing's alleged utterances, Bullitt had shown the committee a document which he said was an original of President Wilson's League of Nations draft written by Wilson personally. He also showed the committee copies of other original drafts and testified about his trip to Russia to get from Lenin a declaration on which fighting would be stopped.

The President's own idea at first, he said, was for an international body composed of ambassadors and ministers of the member countries.

Senator Knox asked Bullitt what he regarded as the President's greatest contribution to the league covenant.

Bullitt said that as far as he knew the only proposition of the President which remained fairly intact was article 10.

HENDERSON HARBOR, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Secretary of State Lansing today said he had no comment to make on William C. Bullitt's testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—A report covering an alleged startling condition in the California raisin crop situation has been mailed to Attorney General Palmer at Washington by the U. S. attorney's office here, it was stated at the Federal building today. The exact nature of the report was withheld. It was stated the situation was uncovered during the investigation of food prices.

HUNS PLAN CONQUEST WITH AID OF REDS

Idaho Audience In Big Tent Is Told Germany Wants America Isolated

UNIVERSAL DISORDER FEARED BY PRESIDENT

Wilson Says In Bringing Home League He Obeyed Congress Mandate

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho, Sept. 12.—Germans are fraternizing with Russian Bolsheviks, seeking to dominate that country and gain strength for a new conquest, President Wilson warned here today, speaking in a circus tent to a big crowd.

America must guarantee them peace to prevent this, he said.

"Germany wants us to stay out of this treaty," the president declared.

Fearing America's strength, Germany wants to see the United States remain out of the League of Nations and become isolated, he said.

Pro-German propaganda is working hard toward that end, Wilson charged.

"If America does not enter the new world arrangement there will be universal disorder as there is now universal unrest," Wilson asserted. "And don't think that America is immune," he added solemnly. He cited the Boston police strike as "an intolerable crime against civilization" and an evidence of unrest.

"I know what I'm talking about," he cried.

Says Obeyed Mandate
Wilson said that in bringing home the league from Paris he had obeyed the mandate of Congress which urged such an arrangement in a clause written into the naval appropriation bill.

The only reason for opposition, he said, must be a desire to have America do some wrong to some nation which it would be prevented from doing by the league.

Reservations to the treaty would necessitate sending it back to Germany and the Allies for consideration, he said.

He added he had no objection to Congress interpreting clauses of the treaty, but he opposed qualifications or conditions being inserted into it.

An effort to heckle the president in Idaho would not prove surprising to some members of his party. On several occasions heretofore there have been loud shouts from audiences Wilson was addressing, but attendant confusion always was such that the words could not be distinguished. The president, it was noted, usually paused at such interruptions as if trying to hear the question and answer it.

During the night Wilson passed into the Pacific time zone, three hours behind Washington time.

Much warmer weather was encountered by the president's train late yesterday and during the night.

Wears Cooler Clothes
Wilson resumed his black silk suit and silk cap that he wore during the first hot spell of the trip. Other members of the party appeared in Palm Beaches and Panama hats, which made them objects of considerable interest to the dusty mountaineers who drove miles through the hills to see Wilson.

At one station a woman held up a baby for the president to see. Mrs. Wilson reached over and took it in her arms. In a moment it burst into very vocal protests.

"Is it a boy or a girl?" asked the "first lady" while endeavoring to calm it.

"It's a boy," suddenly spoke up the

was a barefoot boy, will be a guest. "Aunt" Louisa Warren, who officiated at the birth of Pershing and first bathed and clothed him, will be another guest of honor. George F. Davis, aged resident of Quincy, Ill., will be another honored guest. Davis gave Pershing's father his first job in Laclede—that of section boss. Professor Smith of Chillicothe, Mo., the living member of the committee giving examinations when Pershing won his appointment to West Point, also will be a guest. Nearly a score of boyhood chums will attend.

Secretary of War Baker and governors of Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois, Oklahoma and Arkansas have been invited.

Gold swords from the world powers, crosses of war and other costly gifts of recognition will be mere gew-gaws and trinkets in the life of Pershing on home-coming day. He will receive a photograph and a revolver. The photograph—faded and worn and fifty years old—was a picture of Pershing's mother. It was found recently in an old album belonging to J. H. Hamilton of Laclede.

Jordan Parks, a negro, will make the second presentation, overshadowing ceremonies accorded by President Wilson, King George and other notables. Parks will return to Pershing an old-fashioned revolver given the negro when John Pershing left for West Point.

"I've been offered as high as $100 for it," said Parks. "I wouldn't have traded it for a farm."

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—General Pershing left New York for Washington on a special train shortly after 8 o'clock this morning, just one year to the hour after his divisions had crashed through the German lines in the salient of St. Mihiel, spelling defeat for the kaiser.

The commander in chief recalled the coincidence to the group of 200 city officials, police, friends and newspaper men who gathered at the station to give him a rousing cheer as the train pulled out. Pershing was pleased with the unexpected reception and said New York had endeared itself to him forever.

There was a touching scene when the great soldier bade goodbye to his small son, Warren, fairly smothering the boy when he hugged and kissed the youngster. Warren stayed with his two aunts, who were present. The boy is going out west on a ranch while his father winds up final work in Washington.

tack on espionage laws and laws of "repression and suppression," which are still preventing independent thought.

"There was a time," the senator declared, "when any man stood with his head high and dared have an independent thought, differing from that of the power in control, he was immediately called pro-German. It matters not what a test of his loyalty might show. Later this was changed and people dared not speak what was in their hearts because they would be termed a 'bolshhevik.'"

"But you can't frighten people any longer. The time has passed when you can frighten men who disagree with those in power by calling them pro-German or bolshhevik."

The plea for right of independent thought, the attacks on Article ten and the thrusts at the president brought roars of approval from the big Indianapolis crowd.

Why Eat Bad Eggs?

Responding to the argument that the treaty is the best that could be gotten and should therefore be accepted without question, Johnson said was like insisting that because you only had one egg and that was rotten, you should eat it.

He declared the statement that the covenant provided for disarmament was answered by the fact that the administration now asks for the greatest standing army in American history, while other powers are laying plans along similar lines.

"The only way I know to disarm is disarm," the senator shouted, "but there is nothing in the treaty providing for such action."

If the president believes Japan will carry out her promise as regards Shantung and Japan intends to carry it out, then Wilson should have written that promise right under his signature to the peace treaty and there should have been no objection from Japan, Johnson declared.

The senator sat for nearly two hours in the union station at Indianapolis last night when his train was late, and arrived in St. Louis an hour late today. An early morning crowd cheered him as he was escorted to the street. After a speech before the City Club at 10:15 he will address a mass meeting at the Coliseum tonight.

proud father from the background, "and his name is Wilson."

This brought a cheer from the rear platform crowd.

Saturday will be one of Wilson's busiest days. He speaks at Tacoma in the morning, reviews the Pacific fleet at Seattle in the late afternoon, and makes a speech in Seattle at night.

Talks with men and women in Montana indicated that many of the people know little about the league of nations and in some cases the attitude toward it appeared to have been rather apathetic. Wilson's trip is believed by members of his party to be having the effect of awakening interest in the league and of stirring people up to ask questions about it.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Organized labor must find means of redressing wrongs other than by strikes of state, city or national employees, according to Matthew Woll, vice president of the American Federation of Labor.

Speaking at a meeting of the National Civil Liberties Federation, Woll asserted the Labor Federation granted charters to unions of policemen and firemen with the understanding that they would not resort to strikes.

Referring to the Boston police strike, Woll said "A method of redress is open to the strikers which can be exercised collectively and which would obviate the necessity of a strike."

POLY ASSEMBLY IS FEATURED BY 'PEP'

A Dozen New Faculty Members Are Introduced to High School

The "Poly" high assemblies for this year were started off with "pep" and energy, yesterday morning in the "barn," as the students have dubbed their make-shift assembly hall, which, however, will soon be replaced, when a fine new $50,000 assembly hall is erected in its stead. With this school spirit shown yesterday, the augmented student body hopes for the best assemblies in the school's history.

As the curtain was drawn, the students saw twelve good-looking, good-natured men and women, strangers to them, but who were later introduced by Principal D. K. Hammond as the new faculty members.

The assembly opened with the singing of "America" and the school song, with C. A. Gustlin, supervisor of music, leading.

Fillard Tyrell, student body president, gave the students a stirring welcome and advised them not to stand by idle, but to get in and help.

Principal Hammond welcomed the new members of the faculty, among whom was one of the former instructors, T. B. Kelly, who has been in the service.

The principal stated that this year the school has the strongest faculty in the history of the institution. There are over 800 students and 1000 are expected by the end of the term. He suggested that the motto be, "Get Busy." Every one should get acquainted with the new teachers, help them in every way possible and make them feel at home.

Instructor Kelly told the students how much the fellows fighting in France would appreciate a chance for a high school course and urged them to work hard this year.

Lynn Crawford boosted "The Generator" very cleverly. Crawford is a man with lots of pep and a smiling countenance.

"Spud" Morrison, the football coach, was then called upon and the audience gave him a real yell, followed by the stamping of feet, whistling in everything. He says that sixty men were out for football Wednesday night. More were expected last night. Everyone is asked to get into action and get behind the team.

Mr. Gustlin made several announcements regarding the glee clubs, orchestra, and band. There will also be a stringed instrument organization this year.

A political meeting was held in the "barn" this afternoon and parties for the year were organized.

HOME SELLING IS REFLECTED AT WATER OFFICE

Frequent Changes In Ownership Entails Extra Work On Clerical Force

"Gracious but the people of this city are selling their homes fast and buying new ones."

This was the expression today of an attaché of the city water office and the use of the word "gracious" indicates that the exclamation did not come from a male member of the force.

In no department of the city is activity in real estate reflected as in this department. Changing of names of water users entails considerable work in the office, under the plate system used in stamping the names on water receipts and on the book entries.

No one will deny the fact that many pieces of property have changed hands in Santa Ana in the past few months and the sellers of homes are not the only one who have been purchasing. Many new comers have bought and the sellers have been taking apartments and moving into rented houses, where they could be secured.

The building activity in the residence section also indicates that many have not been able to buy ready-built homes and have been forced to erect residences in order to maintain a residence here.

FINANCIAL AID FOR EXHIBIT NECESSARY

W. Dean Johnston, president of the Orange County Farm Bureau, or representatives of the bureau, probably will appear before the Board of Supervisors at its meeting next week and ask assistance in the county entering an exhibit at the county fair to be held in Riverside next month—October 7 to 11.

Officials of the county fair organization of Riverside were here yesterday afternoon and held a conference with Johnston at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

While no definite conclusion was arrived at, it was generally understood that some effort would be made to get up an exhibit if financial assistance is offered by the board.

An exhibit is to be installed by Dr. W. McDannald, county representative at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, at the Huntington Beach Fair, and it is probable that this will be taken to Riverside, augmented by such exhibits as might be available at the close of the Orange County Fair.

An attempt will be made to get the farm centers of the county back of the movement to install a first-class exhibit.

DR. FORD A. CARPENTER HEADS NEW AIR WORK

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—Dr. Ford A. Carpenter, chief of the local weather bureau, has resigned to become head of a new department of aeronautics and meteorology established by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Major H. B. Hersey, now in charge of the Milwaukee weather bureau, will succeed Dr. Carpenter.

Dr. Carpenter's new work will consist largely of compiling data and making observations of value in the promotion of aeronautics in this region. He will also make weather surveys for the benefit of investors and others.

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."

THE FASHION SHOW

With Santa Ana merchants planning the Fashion Show for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, it is, indeed, timely to point out to men and women of Orange county the fact that this year more than ever before Santa Ana merchants have made provision for meeting their fashion wants.

Any resident of Orange county who is not thoroughly familiar with the high standards set by local stores will learn a great deal through a show such as is to be given here. She will learn that Santa Ana stores are thoroughly up to date in styles, that first-class goods are to be bought in Santa Ana at prices that are under Los Angeles prices, and that Santa Ana stores carry full lines and excellent stocks of goods.

Santa Ana merchants have been saying that there is no need for Santa Ana people to go elsewhere for their dry goods, clothing and shoes. Whatever else the high cost of living has done, it has not caused Santa Ana merchants to become unreasonable. It has not caused them to desert their set rules of fair play and fair prices. They have not been taking advantage of rapidly changing price lists in order to ask their customers prices not based on costs.

In planning this Fashion Show, Santa Ana merchants are inviting comparisons of their stocks of goods and their prices. Through it residents of Orange county will have the opportunity to know and become convinced that Santa Ana stores are to be depended upon in styles, goods and prices. The Fashion Show is to be worth while, not so much for the benefit of the merchants as for the buying public in general, for when styles, goods and prices offered at home are thoroughly satisfactory the buyer who knows that they are satisfactory is the one who profits.

THE SAFE VACATION

Anyone who has returned sound and whole from a vacation in the woods will tremble to think what he escaped, when he buys the new pamphlet issued by the United States Public Health Service, gruesomely entitled, "The Safe Vacation."

"Sanitary conditions are more important than golf links or ball rooms," warns the little counsellor. It also gives a list of bandages, drugs and other contents of the bath-room medicine cabinet which should be taken along. It even insists that a clinical thermometer and a hot water bottle are the only safe and sane companions to life in the woods.

If you camp out, you must trench around your tent, build a wooden floor, screen your cook tent, and then, being exhausted, lie down to pleasant dreams of what a good time you might have had if you were not upon the safe vacation.

Upon the safe vacation you carry remedies for bullet wounds, for drowning, for poison ivy and for chigger bites, and on many occasions you send for the doctor.

Perhaps it is just as well that the book did not come out until most people had had their vacations. If they get it now and read it promptly it will be possible to get most of it by the time vacation time comes around once more, and the vacationists can start off unsafe as always, but happy.

LIFE-SAVING MINISTRY

Everyone who contributed to the funds for Armenian and Syrian relief will read the summarized report of the auditing committee of Near East Relief with more than ordinary interest. The need was great, almost beyond human comprehension. Few appeals for aid have ever had the response that was given in this cause.

This report shows that many tens of thousands of refugees have been repatriated, that other tens of thousands have been provided with food. In one small city alone 1,600 children under fifteen years of age are being fed from soup kitchens. In another place 40,000 people were fed daily, else they would have starved. Beirut's experience is a sample of what has been done in the distribution of clothing. In that city workrooms for refugees were established, and 26,000 garments a month were distributed to villages. Through the establishment of industries, relief of a substantial nature has been given to untold thousands. Through orphanages and hospitals alone a work has been done worthy many times of the entire cost of the relief work done for the Armenians and Syrians.

A great work has been done. A greater work remains. Tens of thousands of little children, besides men and women, are living today who without relief would certainly have perished.

But the need for relief has not passed, and after relief must come reconstruction!

These refugees (700,000 reported by military authorities in the Caucasus alone, exclusive of other areas) are not yet able to return to their homes which are occupied or controlled by demobilized, but armed, Turkish soldiers and bands of brigands. They must in some way be helped through another winter or until they can be restored to their lands and ruined homes under proper governmental protection.

The able-bodied adults will quickly regain self-support, but a large part, if not the majority of the refugees, are orphans who do not know their own names nor the names of their relatives.

These children, who are potentially "The New Near East," must be saved, sheltered, clothed, fed and educated until they can take their proper places in the service of their new country and the new world.

The leaders in the relief work declare that disbursements for the next year will equal those of the past year. America will be called upon to furnish funds, and the appeal is of the kind that America will answer wholeheartedly.

Which type of girl did the soldiers like? Well, here is a list: Tall, short, medium; blond, brunette, medium; fat, thin, medium; old, young, medium; rich, poor, medium; good, bad, medium. Not a boy liked any other type.

As Patriots

There is one brief paragraph of President Wilson's forceful Indianapolis address which is so pregnant of truth that should be heeded that we republish it. It reads as follows:

"One of the things that I have most at heart in this report to my fellow citizens is that they should forget what party I belong to and what party they belong to. I am making this journey as a democrat, but I am spelling it with a little 'd', and I don't want anybody to remember, so far as this errand is concerned, that it is ever spelled with a big 'D'."

Doubtless there are Americans who need that kind of admonition, and some of them are in the United States senate, but there should not be. There is no American who should, in a time when the welfare of the world is at stake, place partisanship higher than patriotism, and that manifestly is what he does who today is considering, not the world issue, but who shall be elected in 1920, a class of citizens who are volubly represented in the senate.

If there is no hope of maintained universal peace in the league of nations, then there is no such hope for the world, for the men who are most violently opposed to it, who would tear it to pieces and trample it beneath their feet, do not even pretend they have any other panacea for the world's terrible disease of war. "Wreck the league," their actions say, but they have sought of hope to offer in the place of it.

Under such circumstances patriotism demands that we reach out and take the one hope unto ourselves and be who at such a time think only of partisan preferences is a mighty poor specimen of manhood. Whether President Wilson is a Democrat, a Republican, or something else, has nothing to do with the merits of the case. It is either reach out and take this one hope that is offered, or go without hope.

Nobody pretends that the league covenant is perfect. Being human in its origin, it could not be; but its defects can be rectified in time by the experience that time gives, and they cannot safely or wisely be rectified in any other way. Particularly, they cannot so be rectified by men who in the very nature of the case know vastly less of the problems that confronted the conference than do the big men who took part in it—such men, for example, as some of our senators and representatives.

Read the league of nations covenant and read it carefully, and you will not oppose it, unless by chance you are looking at it through spectacles colored by partisan thought of 1920; and this should not be, for a good partisan at this era in the world's history necessarily is a mighty poor patriot. It is a time to be democrats with a little "d" and there is not a question in our mind that a very decided majority of Americans are so.

GROANS AND GRINS

NO WONDER
The old man was applying at the eye hospital for some spectacles, and the doctor was making a test of his eyes.

A card was fixed on the wall a little distance away from where the old man was sitting, and the doctor asked him: "Can you read that, my man?" "No, sir," said the old man, "I can't."

"Well, can you read it now?" Again the old man replied: "No, sir."

The doctor angrily pulled him forward till his nose almost touched the placard.

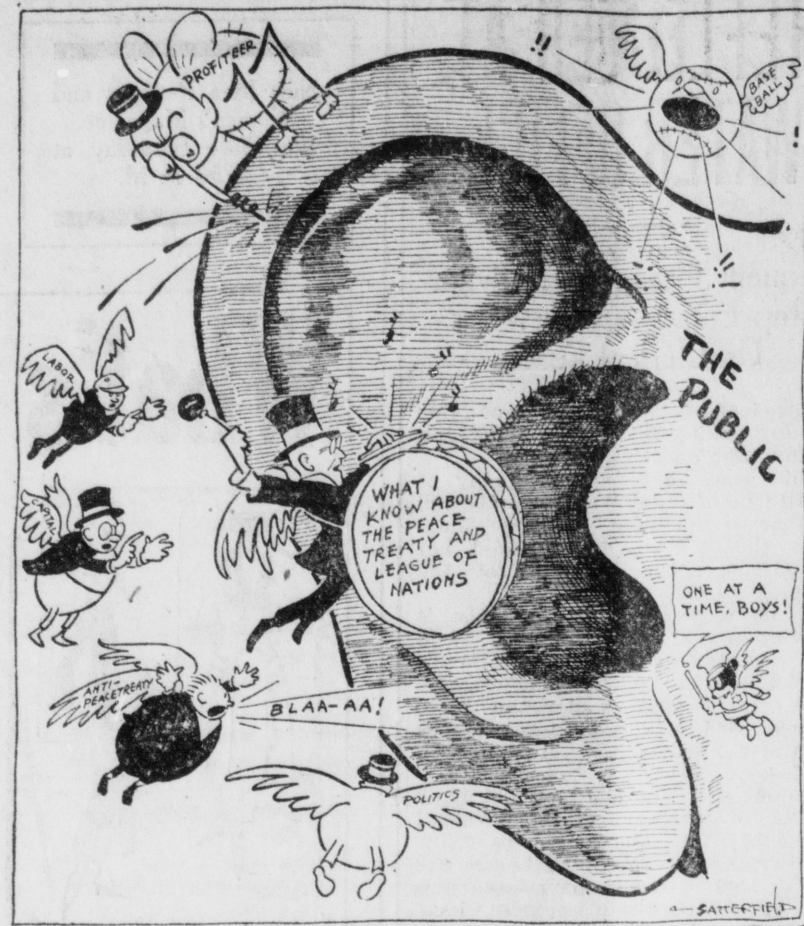

"Well, can you read it now?" "No, sir," said the old man sadly, shaking his head. "You see, sir, I never learnt to read!"—Answers.

DR. C. D. BALL GIVES HIS VIEWS UPON PROBLEMS OF NORTH MAIN STREET

Editor Register: The city trustees are asking the North Main street property owners for an expression of opinion upon several points of interest in connection with the improvement of the street.

Is it the desire of the owners to have the trolley rails removed? North to Seventeenth street the roadway is 46 feet from curb to curb. If the rails remain, the Pacific Electric company will care for 22 feet, or nearly one-half of the whole of the pavement. If the rails are removed, the full 46 feet will have to be paved by the owners or the taxpayers. If the railroad is retained the roadbed will be maintained by the company. If it is removed all street repairs will fall upon the taxpayers. If the rails are removed, truck traffic will increase tremendously and the cost of street maintenance in proportion, the taxpayer paying the bill.

Is the railroad of use to the property owners? To me, yes. The others must answer for themselves. Is the street to be better lighted? It is one of the busiest thoroughfares in Southern California. The present lighting system is unsatisfactory and out of date—fit only for a four-corner town. Can side lights be used satisfactorily and retain the trees? Many property owners think not.

Are the trees essential to the beauty of the street? Carefully inspect the North Main street yards and lawns—note the beautiful Baumgartner grounds. If all the Main street lawns were equally attractive, few streets in our Southland would compare with it. The only worthwhile trees on the street are the acacias and they will replace themselves in five or six years. The acacia is a beautiful tree but very destructive to walks and curbing. It will grow just as luxuriantly inside the walks as in the parkings and it will throw its shadows just as far. By sacrificing the trees the street can be better lighted and widened nine feet.

Does the street need that nine feet for business purposes? Compare it with the great thoroughfares in this vicinity and remember too that Main street is the state highway between Los Angeles and San Diego and between the upper Santa Ana valley and Newport harbor.

Roadways
Los Angeles
Main street.....50 feet
Spring street.....32 "
Broadway.....36 "
West Seventh street.....36 "

Anaheim
Los Angeles street.....49 feet
Center street.....64 "
Orange
Glassell, north of Plaza.....53 feet
Santa Ana

Fourth street.....56 feet
Broadway.....53 "
Main street.....46 "
Main street then in width foots the list of all the great roadways in Southern California.

With the railroad removed the street is far too narrow for its ever-increasing traffic. With an addition of nine feet it will still be narrower than West Seventh street, Los Angeles, and West Seventh is a notoriously narrow street.

If the property owners of North Main street are willing to sacrifice the parkings for the benefit of the city, what is the city willing to do for the property owners? The property owners are certainly long suffering, but there is a limit to their patience and endurance. Years ago the roadway was wider than it is now, but the city compelled us to re-curb at our own expense at the same time narrowing the street. In some places the double curbing pathetically emphasizes the mistake of the past. We are progressive, but we do not care to sacrifice thousands of square feet of good pavement and curbing for the betterment of the city unless the city is willing to share the burden.

THINKS IT TIME SANTA ANA MAKES A DEMAND THAT IT BE GIVEN A FEDERAL BUILDING

Editor Register: In reading your editorial, "The Sun's Accusation," regarding the candidacy of Congressman William Kettner, who is likely to become a candidate for re-election from the Eleventh Congressional District, recalls to mind my first impression when I came to Santa Ana for the purpose of looking over the city with the view of making it my home. Having served in the capacity of postmaster in my home town in the East, where five mail routes left the post office daily, I had learned to judge to some extent the prosperity of a community by its post office. Not knowing the community of Santa Ana, I made the impression it made on me when I entered the Santa Ana postoffice, and found it in a rented building, with crowded conditions. My first thought was that Santa Ana was not a city of 15,000 population. Is so, the territory tributary to the post office was very limited and not a prosperous community. However, having had editorial experience, I had also learned that the real barometer of a community's prosperity is that of its newspaper. The Daily Register spoke loud and clear. Thus I reasoned that the city and community must be prosperous and that the provisions were handing to Santa Ana the hot end of the poker, in making no provisions for a federal building in keeping with the city and community. Upon investigation I found that the Santa Ana post office was an office of the first class; that the post office at Orange was an office of the second class; that Tustin, small but beautiful, had an office of the third class within a few miles of Santa Ana. As one who loves to boost for Santa Ana and Orange county, I think it time that some kind of indignation meeting be held to impress on our congressman and those who operate the "pork barrel" at Washington, that Santa Ana is not only entitled to, but is actually in need of, a federal building for post office purposes.

In conclusion, allow me to suggest that Orange county, in the midst of its wealth and possibilities, also has men big enough and able enough to send to Congress to represent the whole district. Let the next congressman to represent the Eleventh Congressional District be an Orange county man.

Home From Trip

Mrs. Allie Cain has returned from her sister-in-law's, Mrs. R. Bursee, of El Monte, where she has been the greater part of the summer, returning in time for the service men's celebration at the park.

Mrs. Bursee is just recovering from an auto accident, in which she was seriously hurt, and just recently they lost their home by a fire, Mrs. Cain losing many of her personal belongings.

Eastern Visit

Mrs. Russell Scott will leave Sunday for San Francisco, where she will spend a short time with cousins before leaving for Iowa to visit her father.

Yesterday Mrs. Scott and Mrs. N. J. Warner drove to Ramona convent to see their daughters, Miss Josephine Scott and Miss Mildred Warner, who have entered the school.

Miss Velda Fuller is also attending school there.

For School Faculty

Mrs. D. K. Hammond is to be hostess at a reception for the ladies of the high school faculty this afternoon.

Ebbl Travelers

The First Ebbl Travelers will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Medlock, with Mrs. M. F. Heathman as hostess. This will be the first meeting of the year and a large attendance is desired.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Alberta Kathryn Abbey of Long Beach, to Louis Adrian McCain, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McCain, was told at a pretty luncheon given the early part of the week by her aunt, Mrs. Harry Dyer, of 803 Cedar avenue, Long Beach.

The good news was told the guests at the luncheon table, centered by a chubby, smiling, living cupid, two-year-old Corinne Adams, niece of the hostess. The little cupid, in pink tights with wings of gauze, held on one arm the bow and arrow from the point of the latter being suspended the two hearts and the engagement ring. On the other arm was a tiny basket in which were the announcement cards.

When the guests were seated the little cupid passed the cards which bore the names of the engaged couple and the date, September 16. The bride to be is the niece and ward of the hostess and the groom a Santa Ana young man.

Bluebirds perched on the water glasses marked places for the bride-elect, and Mrs. Earl Abbey, Mrs. Oris Mullinix, Mrs. H. E. Barnes, of Anaheim; Mrs. Clifford Jones, of Fullerton; Miss Bess Wood, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Frank Murphy, Mrs. Regina Adams, Miss Alice Deebie, of Los Angeles; Misses Rachel and Frances Halbert and Nellie King, of Long Beach.

The afternoon was spent at fortunetelling. A number of pretty social affairs are planned for this week.

Happy Birthday

Master Vernon Koepsel was made a very happy young man recently, when his mother, Mrs. A. E. Koepsel, invited fifteen of his friends to his home to help celebrate his fourth birthday.

The small people played on the lawn all the happy afternoon. There were gaily-colored balloons and caps for each of the guests, and after the games out of doors the honor guest of the afternoon was called into the house, where there was more fun for them all when Master Vernon was requested to hunt for the presents that were hidden in all sorts of unexpected places in the living-room.

When these had all been discovered and greatly admired, the favorite refreshments of all children, delicious ice cream and cake, were served to the young guests, including Catherine and Richard Robbins, Thelma Johnson, Judson and Elizabeth Palmer, Bobbie Clinean, Nelson Holderman, Evelyn and Virginia Walbridge, Evelyn and Lester Rohrs, Mildred White, Dorothy Holzgrafe, John Vernon Sauers, Mary Elizabeth Cotant.

Community Plays.

With a list of eighty sustaining members this season the Hollywood Community Theater will open its quaint little doors for the first production of the year September 22. Miss Neelye Dickson, to whose initial endeavors and courage the credit for the undertaking is largely due, will remain as director and producer, and has outlined a program of six bills, to be given monthly as they were last season at the theater in Ivar street.

A new Lord Dunsany play, "Fame and the Poet," and three other short plays of quality and originality quite fit for such a production will complete the program.

Miss Dickson formerly resided here, where she taught oral expression in the high school.

Travel Section No. 2

Travel Section No. 2 of the Ebbl, will meet Monday, September 15, at 2:30, with Mrs. J. E. Paul. This is a special meeting to consider the program of the coming year and a full attendance is desired.

Continue Schooling

Miss Florence Breckenridge is at home for a short time before continuing her studies at Pomona college. She has been at Pine Crest the greater part of the summer, with college friends.

Miss Verdelle Breckenridge is expected home very soon, possibly today, from Descanso, near San Diego, as she is to enter on her first year in the college this fall.

Stockton Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bridgford have had as their guests the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bridgford of Stockton. They returned to their home Wednesday morning after a two week's visit spent with Mr. and Mrs. Bridgford and other relatives.

Supreme Vice to Visit

The Fraternal Brotherhood will have the opportunity next Thursday evening to again welcome its genial supreme vice president, Mrs. Emma R. Neidig, who has been sojourning at Laguna. Plans are being arranged to appropriately entertain the much-beloved officer.

Next Tuesday evening the lodge will visit Olinda lodge. A pleasant meeting of the lodge was held last night. One application was received.

Rich Sauces at Low Cost

A very simple pudding—the cottage pudding variety—a sponge or a cup cake—a piece of left over cake steamed to new tenderness—some cold boiled rice, or even the despised bread pudding will take on new charms if served with a delicious sauce.

Whipped Cream Substitute

To make this delicious sauce mix together 2 tablespoonfuls of cornstarch and 2 tablespoonfuls of sugar. Add the mixture to 2 cupfuls of rich, sweet milk and cook the two in a double boiler until slightly thickened. Beat the whites of two eggs very stiff and pour the sauce over them. Beat thoroughly, return to the fire and cook until the sauce is the consistency of cream. Flavor with almond or vanilla.

Drawn Butter Sauce for Puddings

Rub together 2 tablespoonfuls of flour and 2 tablespoonfuls of butter, and add gradually 1 cupful of brown sugar and 2 cupfuls of boiling water. Cook until thick and clear and flavor with orange juice or vanilla.

Apricot Sauce

Use canned or stewed dried apricots and rub through a sieve. Sweeten to taste 3/4 of 1 cupful and beat into 3/4 cupful of whipped cream or a thin custard sauce.

Chocolate Sauce

Mix together 1 1/2 tablespoonfuls cornstarch and 1/4 teaspoonful of salt. Mix in 4 tablespoonfuls of grated bitter chocolate or cocoa. Add 1/2 cupful of sugar. Gradually pour over the dry ingredients 1 cupful of boiling water, stirring constantly. Boil the mixture for five minutes.

Fruit Sauce

Mix together 1 tablespoonful of cornstarch, 1/4 cupful of sugar and a pinch of salt. Add 1/4 cupful of boiling water slowly, stirring constantly and then add 1/4 cup corn syrup. Boil mixture 5 minutes, add 1 tablespoonful of lemon juice and same amount of grated lemon rind. If desired add 1/4 tablespoonful of powdered cinnamon. Stir in 3/4 cupful of canned fruit juice, or prune or pineapple juice. Serve hot or cold.

PERSONALS

Mrs. G. D. Campbell and Miss Violet Campbell have left here for an indefinite visit with relatives in North-eastern Nebraska.

Miss Ella Slocum is spending the week with her sister in Riverside. She is expected home Monday.

Misses Helen Von Allmen and Frieda Schroeder left today for Los Angeles, where they will continue their work at the Normal school. Miss Von Allmen will graduate this year.

Mrs. E. L. Madden left the early part of the week for Denver, where she will visit her brother. From there she will go to St. Louis to visit cousins, remaining in the East about six weeks. Upon her return, she will stop off at San Francisco to spend some time with her daughter, Miss Mildred Murphy, who is attending U. C. at Berkeley.

Mrs. W. A. Lowman and Mrs. D. W. Hamilton, as guests of Mrs. Charles Mitchell, went to Los Angeles yesterday.

Mrs. T. P. Kingrey, Mrs. H. J. Selway, Misses Waive, Kingrey and Eleanor Sturgeon went to Los Angeles yesterday, where they were joined by Miss Marietta Whipple, who has been visiting in Hollywood for some time. She returned with them for a visit with Miss Kingrey, as they were friends in their former home town of Hutchinson, Kansas.

Miss Marguerite Wallace of Long Beach is spending the week with Miss Adeline Hill.

Miss Anne Ritchies, who has been visiting the past two weeks with Mrs. Burr Chandler, is returning to her home in Portland today. During the time she spent here, several trips were taken to the different beaches and mountain resorts, and four days were spent at Catalina.

Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Lane of New York city visited with Mrs. C. H. Phillips yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Howerth of Berkeley are guests for a brief visit with J. A. Hankey. Dr. Howerth recently returned from overseas, where he has been lecturing for the educational corps of the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holzgrafe and little daughter of San Pedro and Mr. and Mrs. F. Holzgrafe of this city motored today to Santa Barbara, where they will visit a week or so with Homer Holzgrafe, who is in business there.

Miss Bertha Wing, office deputy at the Farm Advisor's office, has resigned her position and soon will go to Bakersfield, where her parents are now living. Miss Hazel Newman will succeed Miss Wing at the Farm Advisor's office.

Clark Simmons telegraphed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Simmons of 833 East Washington avenue, yesterday, that he has arrived safely at Camp Merritt, N. Y., after being overseas more than a year with the medical department, Hospital corps.

Miss Caroline Haughton returned this morning from a two months' visit in St. Louis, Chicago and in many of the southern states.

Miss Frances Gooding of Los Angeles and Misses Grace and Helen Webster of Pasadena visited at the home of Mrs. Wm. M. Smart last Tuesday.

Miss Beatrice Higgins, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Doris Robbins, left today for her home at Berkeley.

Resinol Soap
will clear your skin

Many and many a girl has a clear, healthy complexion today because some friend came to her with that sound advice. Resinol Soap not only is delightfully cleansing and refreshing, but its daily use reduces the tendency to pimples, offsets many ill-effects of cosmetics, and gives nature the chance she needs to make red, rough skins white and soft.

If the skin is in bad shape, through neglect or improper treatment, a little Resinol Ointment should be used at first, to hasten the return to normal conditions. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists.

ORANGE SQUADS START IN WORK WITH VIM

Orange Gridiron Prospects
Show Snap In Fine
Practice

ORANGE, Sept. 12.—The high school squad twenty-six strong, formally started the football season on the school gridiron with a snappy two-hour workout. For many of the squad this was the first practice, since many of the men have been working out with the coach for nearly a week and are now well hardened and rounding into fine condition. Owing to the holiday Tuesday and opening of school Wednesday, that evening was set as the first and final formal practice. Thirty-five suits have been issued and more were issued today.

Practice was brisk and snappy, the men going through their work in charging, falling on the ball, forward passing and dodging in peppy style. Signal drill started yesterday and also work on the tackling dummy. Scrimmage will be on the hill early next week with a practice game for today. The second team this year is going to be strong and a full schedule of six games is being planned.

There is a rumor that Shipke, last year's star full back, is going to be back in school and if he comes the football prospects at the high school will be boosted 50 per cent. The vacant place at full has been puzzling the coach and his return would insure the squad of a fine forward passer and a smashing line plunger. With Shipke back, the coach would find himself with a complete back field, two experienced ends, two veteran tackles, several old candidates for guard and two first team caliber men for center.

There is manifest at the high school a new spirit in athletics and every effort is being made to put Orange on the football map. Prospects have not been so good for several seasons and if the local boys should win from Fullerton in the big Thanksgiving game, it would cause great rejoicing and no small amount of genuine satisfaction among local fans since for five straight years Fullerton has won from Orange and last year got the championship.

White Sox Stars Find Time To Dope Chance on Ponies

Two Eddies Are Caught By
Pick a Winner

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Baseball players are just natural "dopesters." If they aren't doping out baseball averages they are doping out something else. It seems to be in the blood.

Eddie Collins and Eddie Murphy are a couple of the White Sox dopesters who do quite a bit of doping on the ponies. Yes, folks are still able to play 'em and the two Eddies know where to find a handbook any time they have a hunch they can pick a winner.

A photographer mooching about the White Sox ball yard recently caught the two Eddies poring over a sheet doping out some nags on which they took a chance that evening. The picture shows that they were somewhat engaged when the shutter clicked.

Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero, Ferdie Schupp, The St. Louis hurler won his own game by biffing a home run in the ninth against Brooklyn. Score 4 to 3. Alexander was soft for the Giants, and they took the last game from the Cubs, 7 to 3.

Shawkey had too much stuff for the Indians and the Yankees won, 2 to 1. The Tigers clawed Hasty, a recruit pitcher, and beat the Athletics, 3 to 2. The Red Sox took a double-header from the Browns, 4 to 0, and 6 to 0. The Phils were bumped twice by the Pirates, 7 to 1 and 7 to 2.

'Round Coast League Bases

Home runs—Caveny, San Francisco; Mulligan, Krug, Salt Lake.

While the Oaks took two falls out of the Angels, the Tigers beat the Beavers again, 4 to 1, thereby taking a ten point lead.

Killifer's Angels, after being off again and on again, are gone again this week from the top perch. Hollis' pitching won the Oaks 4-0 and in the second, after Cuito shovled in three runs with a pinch hit, the Angels again took the short end, 10-4.

The Seals grabbed their third straight from the Bees, 7 to 4, finding Laverenz easy.

Mullen's Rainiers dropped their fourth successive game to the Senators 4 to 1.

Don Lambert, St. Marys College pitcher, playing bush ball, has been signed for a tryout by the Oaks.

PROHIBITION CAUSES JUSTICE TO RESIGN

NATRONA, Pa., Sept. 12.—"Deprived of a livelihood" was the way in which Martin L. Walters, justice of the peace here, worded his resignation, which was handed to council last night. Even more significant was the following phrase, "and I believe it is entirely due to the fact that old John Barleycorn no more has sway in this industrial valley."

Justice Walters has for a long time held office here. His wide acquaintance brought him all the business that he could comfortably care for. The high cost of living in the last three years prevented him earning more than a living, and now that is gone.

Disorderly conduct and drunkenness cases by the score were dealt with weekly in Justice Walters' office in the old days. The drought has ended all that, and as a result he has given up his office.

We Specialize in Toggery For Boys

This store not only carries an unusually dependable line of boys' suits and coats but it also makes a special effort to present at all times everything that is new and good in boys' toggery. The hats, and caps, and shirts, and hosiery we offer for the boys receive just as much careful attention as the suits themselves. All these things are necessary for the appearance and comfort of the boy and he wants just the sort of service we are offering. We want all the boys and the parents of all the boys to "get the habit" of looking here first.

Just now we are showing a fine new shipment of shirts for fall. Everything that the boys like best is included in the lot and the prices for these splendid shirts are only from $1.25 to $5.00.

DAY TRAINS FOR CONFERENCE ON RILEY, PLANTS FUNDAMENTALS IN L. A. SOON

Mayor Grants Permits For
Beet Trains to Help Out
In Bad Situation

To assist the farmers in getting beets out of the field and to help the sugar factory here to get the beets into the factory, Mayor Mitchell has recently granted permits frequently for the Pacific Electric to run beet trains through the city during the day.

This is the explanation to some who have been complaining about the long trains passing through the city in the day-time and ranting about the city being dominated by the railway company.

This condition has occurred practically every year since the sugar factories started operations near the city, but the trains have been more frequent since the strike started than before. Beets lying in the field for any length of time lose much of their sugar contents and nine-tenths of the residents of the city will approve the mayor's action in giving relief by permitting the trains to travel over Fourth street during business hours instead of at night, under the circumstances.

$30,000 JEWEL THIEF IS SOUGHT BY POLICE

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—The entire detective force of Los Angeles today was engaged in trying to find the man who robbed Mrs. Lucile Orchard, wealthy Los Angeles woman, of $30,000 in jewels at her home late yesterday.

When Mrs. Orchard returned to her apartments last night a lone man bound and gagged her and escaped with her jewels.

Noted Preachers Will Be Heard at Sessions In Bible Institute

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—Los Angeles is to have a conference on Fundamentals, under the direction of Dr. W. P. Riley, pastor of the First Baptist church of Minneapolis, Minn.

This conference is one of many which are being held at a direct result of the world conference held in Philadelphia last May, when Vice President Marshall presided, and representative ministers and laymen from all over the United States took part. These conferences have been held in the South, Middle West, and from Portland all down the coast.

Among the speakers who will be in Los Angeles beside Dr. Riley, will be Dr. A. C. Dixon, formerly pastor of the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London (Spurgeon's church); Dr. Mark Matthews, ex-moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, and now pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Seattle, the largest Presbyterian church in the world; Dr. Henry Ostrom, the well-known Methodist evangelist, and other well known men.

The music will be in charge of Arthur W. McKee, the famous tenor, and Lasse Latham, pianist, both of whom were formerly with Paul Rader.

Sessions of the conference will be held in the Bible Institute auditorium, Sixth and Hope streets, beginning September 24 and continuing to September 28.

ENDEAVORERS NAME TODD AS PRESIDENT

RIVERSIDE, Cal., Sept. 12.—Rev. J. C. Todd of Los Angeles is the new president of the state Christian Endeavorers of the United Brethren in Christ Church. Bishop W. H. Washington is in attendance here today at the 54th annual conference.

The state women's missionary association elected officers as follows:

Mrs. L. Harter of Riverside, president; Mrs. J. L. Perrine, president of the Los Angeles district and Mrs. W. M. Brown of Puente is state treasurer. The secretaries are: Literature, Mrs. Lottie Smith, Stockton; thank offering, Mrs. E. S. Eby, Puente; member at large, Mrs. J. Sherrill, Chico; Other-bein Guild, Mrs. Elizabeth Zuck. Mrs. I. L. Johnson is vice president of the Sacramento district and Mrs. E. A. Zeller is vice president of the Fresno district.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

PASADENA, Sept. 12.—Six trunks containing Christmas presents for Presbyterian missionaries in China, Japan and Korea were started on their long journey yesterday. The consignment represents the gift of the Pasadena Presbyterian church. Included in the shipment were $8,000 picture postcards, which will be distributed by the missionaries among the pupils of the mission schools.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—Following the protest of the Business Men's Cooperative Association, filed with Mayor Snyder yesterday, against the plan of the Board of Public Works to prohibit parking of automobiles on Spring, Broadway and Hill streets from First to Ninth streets, a new plan was evolved that may result in traffic being routed in only one direction on these streets.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 12.—The proposed American Avenue Grammar school, which will replace the building destroyed by fire last December, will be by far the most pretentious structure of its kind yet projected for this city, it was indicated today, when a general contract for construction was awarded to a local contractor at $204,072 and members of the board of education announced that additional contracts will run the total cost to more than $260,000.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—Starting on or about September 22, surplus supplies now held by the War Department will be disposed of through a special government retail store. Just what commodities are to be sold, and the prices for the different grades and the amount allotted to the Los Angeles district will be revealed when instructions from the department now in the mails are received. Previous instructions, however, indicated that socks, underwear, blankets and shoes would be sold, and it is possible that certain commissary supplies will be included.

Our First Thought IS QUALITY

We want absolutely no order to leave this store unless it is exactly right. We want to know that every order is fresh and clean and pure.

Our Second Thought is Service

Our idea in establishing this place was to give the buying public a perfect market service. Every precaution is taken here to avoid errors. We do business on the principle that the customer is entitled to get exactly what he wants. Not how little service we can get along with, but how much we can give, will be our motto.

Doctor Tells How to Detect Harmful Effects of Tobacco

Try These SIMPLE TESTS

New York: Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital, says: Many men who smoke, chew or snuff incessantly and who are seemingly healthy are suffering from progressive organic ailments. Thousands of them would never have been afflicted had it not been for the use of tobacco, and thousands would soon get well if they would only stop the use of tobacco. The chief habit forming principle of tobacco is nicotine, a deadly poison which, when absorbed by the system, slowly affects the nerves, membranes, tissues and vital organs of the body. The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances. One will be afflicted with general debility, others with catarrh of the throat, indigestion, constipation, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will power, mental confusion, etc. Others may suffer from heart disease, bronchial trouble, hardening of the arteries, tuberculosis, blindness or even cancer or the common affliction known as tobacco heart. If you use tobacco in any form you can easily detect the harmful effects by making the following simple tests. Read aloud one full page from a book. If, in the course of reading your voice becomes muffled, hoarse and indistinct, and you must frequently clear your throat, the chances are that your throat is affected by catarrh and it may be the beginning of more serious trouble. Next, in the morning, before taking your usual smoke, walk up three flights of stairs, at a regular pace, then stop. If you find that you are out of breath, your heart beat is forced, trembling or irregular, you may be a victim of functional or organic heart trouble. If you feel that you must smoke, chew or snuff to quiet your nerves, you are a slave to the tobacco habit, and are positively poisoning yourself with the deadly drug, nicotine. In either case you have just two alternatives—keep on with the self-poisoning process irrespective of the dangers and suffer the consequences, or give up the habit and escape the dangers. You can overcome the craving and stop the habit in a very short time by using the following inexpensive formula. Go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol tablets, take one tablet after each meal, and in a comparatively short time you will have no desire for tobacco, the craving will have left you. With the nicotine poison out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note—When asked about Nicotol tablets, one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit; away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol tablets are sold in this country under an anti-drug-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including the Rowley Drug Co.

FRAUD IN 'DEAD WOMAN PACT' CASE DENIED

Father, Who Is Accused By His Daughters, Answers Their Complaint

Denial of intent to defraud Harriet M. des Granges, Fullerton pioneer, who died on May 15 of last year, is contained in an answer and cross-complaint filed today by Attorney Samuel H. French of Los Angeles, in behalf of John C. des Granges, husband of the late Mrs. des Granges, and defendant in an action brought by her daughters to have the court issue an order whereby des Granges would make a conveyance giving back to them fifteen acres of land north-east of Fullerton.

The daughters are Virginia Fortney, Harriet P. Wells, known as Helen des Granges, and Gertrude M. Hunter. The action was instituted for them on June 6th of this year by Attorney John W. Carrigan of Los Angeles.

Fraud Alleged
Allegations that fraud was used by des Granges in inducing Harriet des Granges to deed over the property in April, 1916, to Margaret M. Koch, when des Granges, according to the plaintiffs, told his wife that it would be to her interests to do so, are contained in the complaint filed by the daughters.

At the time that Harriet des Granges made over the deed, it is alleged she was suffering from a cancer of the breast and was incapable of intelligently executing any legal instruments.

Des Granges told her, according to the plaintiffs, that if she made out the deed to Margaret Koch, Mrs. des Granges, and des Granges would take title as joint tenants, and that on the death of either of them the survivor would be entitled to and remain in possession of the land and on the survivor's death the land would pass to the daughters.

Would Sell Land, Claim
It is alleged by the three women that on May 5, 1916, des Granges had Margaret Koch deliver to him a grant deed to the fifteen acres and took title. Des Granges, the daughters declare in their complaint, is about to sell the land against their wishes.

The plaintiffs declare it to have been their belief that on Mrs. des Granges' death the title would pass to them on the death of des Granges, and that they did not know of the deed made out to Margaret Koch until after their mother's death.

An amended demurrer entered by des Granges was overruled by Superior Judge West on August 23.

In the answer and cross-complaint filed today des Granges alleges that at the time the deed was made out to Margaret Koch, Mrs. des Granges was of sound mind and capable of intelligently executing any legal instrument. Des Granges denies that there was any intent on his part to defraud Mrs. des Granges.

HOSPITAL NURSE 'NOW PRAISES TANLAC

Gains Eleven Pounds—"I Am Feeling Fine These Days," He Says

"Tanlac did so much for me that I feel it is a duty I owe to others to let the people know about this medicine," said C. M. Rhamey, who lives at the Hotel George, on Sixth st., San Francisco, Cal., to a Tanlac representative, recently. Mr. Rhamey, who is a nurse by profession, has been nursing in the hospitals for the past eight years.

"Last February, while nursing for the Red Cross Society, I broke my leg in two places," continued Mr. Rhamey, "and was sent to a hospital, where I was in bed for five weeks. While I was waiting for the bones in my leg to knit together again, I lost my appetite and got to where I could hardly eat a thing and, naturally, I lost weight. I took several different kinds of tonic in the hope they would build me up, but none of them seemed to do me a bit of good."

"One morning I happened to be reading the paper and saw a statement by a lady in Los Angeles who claimed she had gotten such wonderful benefit by taking Tanlac that I made up my mind to try the medicine myself to see if it would do anything for me. So I bought a bottle and by the time I had finished about half of it I was feeling so much better that one morning when I looked at my watch and saw it was 11 o'clock, I remarked to one of the attendants, 'Say, I'm hungry.' and it was the first time in months that I had actually felt like eating. From then on I started right in to pick up my appetite and got better and I slept better at night and gained in weight right along until now I have already put on eleven pounds in weight. I am feeling just fine these days and even my doctor has remarked how much better I am looking. I have never allowed my name used in connection with a medicine of any kind, but I have had such excellent results from Tanlac, after all the other things failed, that I take great pleasure in recommending Tanlac to anyone needing a medicine to build them up."

Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by Rowley Drug Co., in Fullerton by G. W. Finch, in La Habra by R. H. Hilbert, in Huntington Beach by Rigdon's Pharmacy, in Orange by Dittmer's Mission Pharmacy, in Placentia by A. J. Robinson, in Tustin by Tustin Drug Co., in Brea by Brea Pharmacy, in Buena Park by Regal Drug Co., in Garden Grove by O. H. Anderson and in Laguna Beach by Laguna Beach Pharmacy.—Adv.

BRAN CASE AGAINST EGG FARM DISMISSED
Dismissal was entered today by I. R. Rubin, attorney for R. W. Moeller in an action against G. H. and Charles W. Peters, doing business as the Superior Egg Farm, at Stanton, to recover damages claimed to have been sustained by the plaintiff through the alleged refusal of the defendants to accept a carload of bran shipped from Los Angeles. A second cause of action was set forth as being the alleged refusal of the defendants to pay for certain goods. Judgment of $365 on the first count was asked and $59.78 on the second. The claims have been satisfied, according to the dismissal notice.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bisurated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant.

But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of peptic pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

WOMAN IN SUIT HEARS 'GHOST LETTERS'

'Other Man' Mentioned In Case Childhood Friend, She Testifies

Coming to light like ghosts of the gray past, two letters, yellow and tattered with age, written in 1906 and 1907, were read as evidence in the divorce trial brought in the Superior court by William J. Long, Anaheim baker, against his wife, Elizabeth A. Long, who opposed the action to prevent her husband from securing a decree.

The "ghost letter" written in 1906 was penned by Mrs. Long to a man who at the time was in England. Long testified that he picked up the letter in his back shop in Los Angeles when it dropped out of the vest pocket of the man after he came to Los Angeles from overseas.

Endearing Terms
Many affectionate terms were used in this letter written by Mrs. Long to the man in England. She told him that she was very anxious for his coming to Los Angeles and that she was lonely.

The other letter was one written by the "other man" in the case to Mrs. Long. It, too, contained many endearing phrases.

After Mrs. Laura J. Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Long, had left the stand, after giving testimony corroborating much of that which had been given by Long, to the effect that the latter had for years been subjected to harshness on the part of his wife, Mrs. Long took the stand.

Questioned by her counsel, Attorney Leonard Evans of Anaheim, Mrs. Long said that the friendship existing between her and the "other man" was merely platonic.

Asked if she kissed the man in question, the witness replied:

Admits Kisses
"I did kiss him and I would do it again if he were here. We were raised together as children and sang in the choir together."

She testified that she kissed the man, who was living at the Long home with his wife, in the morning when he left for work and that generally the man's wife was present when the osculation took place.

Trips made downtown in Los Angeles by Mrs. Long and the man, she testified, were merely for the purpose of showing him, a stranger in the city, points of interest.

Mrs. Long testified that while the couple were living at Chicago, her husband was absent at Colorado Springs for seven months at one time, during which period he sent her only $5, she said. She said that she took in washing.

Cooked for 17, Claim
"I washed ever since I was married," she stated. "While we were in Chicago I did as high as three washes in one day. While he was at Colorado Springs I had seventeen men to cook for besides my children."

The witness said that at the time of an alleged knife episode, wherein Long had accused her of trying to attack him, she had the knife and merely threw it at her daughter, Laura's, feet, without any intention of doing her injury. She denied that when Long arrived on the scene she had the knife poised in her hand.

Superior Judge West granted Long an interlocutory decree, on grounds that the plaintiff had been ordered out of the defendant's home on divers occasions and that the couple had separated about seven years ago.

City and County Briefs

Business at the American Express Company is still growing. The first ten days of this month more than doubled the business of the same time last year.

The following letters remain unclaimed in the post office at Santa Ana for the week ending September 13th: Foreign—Ynez Esqueda, Lionelito Granada, Eva Holmson, Arcadio Lopez, Julio Pedraza, Ruperto Sanchez, Lucile Yuvon. They will be sent to the Dead Letter Office if not called for within two weeks. When calling for the above letters, please say "advertised" and give date.—C. D. Overshiner, Postmaster.

G. W. Sherwood of Fullerton is suffering considerable agony as the result of an injury he sustained a week ago while trimming trees at his home on East Chapman avenue. While trimming a date palm one of the thorns entered his right wrist for over an inch and broke off. He had the thorn removed and the wound cauterized to prevent possible blood poisoning. However, the injury is not healing as fast as it should.

Directors of the Anaheim Walnut Growers' Association, at a meeting this week filed the maximum price for harvesting walnuts at 90 cents per sewed sack of shelled nuts; pickers to shake the trees and clean up the grove to the satisfaction of the owner. An advance payment of one-half will be made when the nuts are picked and the remainder when the orchard is cleaned.

J. C. Hassen has resigned his position as assistant manager of the Northern Orange County Citrus Exchange and has gone back to the California Growers' Exchange to fill the position of assistant area sales manager. He is succeeded at the Northern Orange County Citrus Exchange by P. W. Damon, formerly manager of the Yorba Linda packing house before entering the service. He returned a couple of months ago from France, where he was in some of the thickest fighting.

Justice Cox Turns Movie Actor'on Courthouse Lawn

JUSTICE of the Peace John B. Cox, already the possessor of not a little fame in the United States as a man who plays no favorites when it comes to giving jail sentences or imposing fines for violations of the traffic laws, is about to become still more famous.

The reason is that Justice Cox has turned "movie" actor. At least, he posed before a cinematograph camera today, on the courthouse lawn.

L. E. Tiede, Orange county representative on the staff of the Kinograms Weekly of New York City, prevailed upon Cox to pose for him.

Ever ready to oblige, Cox came outside of his courtroom and stood conversing pleasantly with Motorcade Policeman Carr. Meanwhile, the camera, recording a "close up" of the genial justice of the peace, was cranked by Tiede.

So, in a few weeks Justice Cox's face will become familiar to thousands of "movie" fans in America.

GETS PROBATION IN NON-SUPPORT CASE

Appearing before Superior Judge Williams in the superior court today, Roscoe Conkle, charged with non-support of his six-year-old child, entered a plea of guilty. His attorney, Clyde Bishop, asked probation for his client, which was granted, the court suspending pronouncement of judgment for two years, during which time Conkle is to pay a certain sum monthly for the support of the child, together with any medical expenses which may be incurred in caring for it. Conkle was divorced three years ago, when it was mutually agreed between him and his former wife that he would contribute to the support of the child. Since that time Mrs. Conkle has remarried and been separated from her second husband. The defendant, Attorney Bishop stated, had served in the army during the war. During his term of service the wife received an allotment from Conkle, Bishop stated. Conkle is employed at the Santa Ana Sugar Company's plant in this city.

SQUIRES VISITS BALKAN CITIES WHILE UPON FURLOUGH

Sees Historic Spot Where Archduke Was Killed and War Started

On furlough from the U.S.S. Olympia, on which he is stationed as a musician, Elwell Squires of Santa Ana the first of August journeyed into Sarajevo, Bosnia, and Matar in Herzegovina. He traveled with his eyes open, and he saw cities that but few of the Orange county men who went overseas had an opportunity to see. He saw the place where the Archduke Ferdinand was killed at Sarajevo and the war started.

Squires was the son of Under Sheriff Robert Squires, killed in a battle with a bandit at Tomato Springs several years ago. Soon after America entered the war, Elwell Squires gave up his job with the Santa Ana Steam Laundry and entered the navy. He saw exciting service during the war. Since the armistice he has been stationed in Balkan waters with American vessels sent there to keep the peace between the Slavs and Italians.

"We left on one of our sub chasers," wrote Squires on August 7 from Spalato, Dalmatia, describing the trip taken on his furlough. "It was like the one that was at Newport. We went to a small place called Methovic, where we took the train for Sarajevo. It was a very pretty trip from Spalato to Methovic. We went up a very narrow and shallow river called the Neretva river, where the scenery is pretty, and the things that we saw were interesting."

Crops Being Harvested

"On both sides of the river the people were harvesting and it was interesting to watch them. The most common way to thresh their grain is by driving a team of horses around on it. Very few places had any machinery to work with. Once in a long time a person would pass a little hand machine threshing grain. These people are 500 years behind time and always will be unless the U. S. steps in and shows them how to harvest and do some other things. They transport their crops on and down the river by small boats, the women pulling them along and the men riding in the boats."

"Methovic was a very pretty little town. The river runs right through the middle of town."

Tiresome Riding

"We left Methovic on the 20th Century Limited, 20 miles an hour, and had a tiresome night ride to Sarajevo. They must have lost three or four wheels off their one pullman car as it was not running that night. We arrived at Sarajevo about 7:30 the next morning and talk about tired! If riding the rods is any harder I feel sorry for Judge Cox's callers. We went down to a Turkish bath and talk about a bath! We came out feeling like the archduke."

"We got located in our hotel and then started in to see the city. It is a fair sized city for a European city, about 100,000, 20,000 being Turks. We saw most of the churches and they are the best buildings in the city. Every church that has started from the time of Christ is there—Protestant, Catholic, Jewish, Turkish and more."

"The Turkish churches or Mosques."

Public Spirited Men Join Association for Building More Homes In Fullerton

FULLERTON, Sept. 12.—Concrete plans for the housing of dozens of families who desire to make Fullerton their home and to relieve the already overtaxed situation regarding places to live, were laid at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade, when Major E. J. Marks launched a campaign that is bound to bring results.

The major made some pointed remarks concerning conditions and the apparent apathy with which it had been viewed by moneyed men of the city, and his remarks brought forth prolonged applause. In fact, he aroused an enthusiasm worthy of a Billy Sunday revival, and before he had finished $10,500 was subscribed toward purchasing the stock of the Fullerton Improvement Association or for the organization of a new company to start building apartment houses or bungalows, or both.

After George Amerige, chairman of the housing committee, stated that the committee had nothing to report, Major Marks took the floor and got something out of his system which made a big hit and is bound to score within a reasonably short time.

"I learn from the building inspector that there has been some 80 permits for houses issued in Fullerton within the past eight months for residences, but we are tackling the housing problem in the proper manner. We want a collective enterprise which will care for families collectively. If the citizens here have not the confidence in the city to build, we cannot expect John Jones or Bill Jones to come here and build for us. I repeat, if we have not the confidence to build ourselves, we'd better quit talking about it," was the opening volley fired.

"We cannot expect to get the growth unless we express confidence in the city. If the business men would get together and build apartment houses and bungalow courts it would house families collectively. Single bungalows which are built do not solve anything. Each of them only accommodates one

WOMEN WORKERS WANTED AT $3 TO $6 FOR 8 HOURS

Cannery on East First Street Needs 150 More Until January 1st

With the average wage $3 per day for eight hours and possible for fast workers to make as high as $7 and $8 per day, there is work at the California Packing Corporation's cannery on East First street for 150 more Santa Ana women than are on the payroll today.

With the opening of school and the hot weather ripening chilis very rapidly, Manager Shumate today finds himself swamped with the vegetable, with prospects of many tons going to waste if help can not be secured.

Some of the best workers in the plant were high school girls and they were making good money. By their withdrawal the cannery has been left short-handed and Manager Shumate is making every effort to augment his roster of women employees.

The condition made it impossible for suspension of operations on last Tuesday and the chances are that women who will work on Sunday will be asked to continue their service on the rest day unless a larger force can be secured.

Many of the women have been making $5 and $6 a day, with some of the faster ones making $7 and $8. It is an opportunity for the women to make big wages. The working conditions are agreeable and the work is light.

Peeling and coring chilis is by the piece work, the scale being $1.20 per hundred pounds, and time and a quarter for Sunday and overtime work.

The season will last until the first of January. Pimientos will be coming into the cannery about the 20th of this month, and when harvesting starts they will come in fast. The cannery will need the assistance of at least 375 women until the first of the year. Two hundred and fifty are now working.

France Decorates Steel Men Schwab, Replogle Honored Notables Attend Big Affair

Two War Workers Are Made Knights of the Legion of Honor

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 12.—France has recognized the valuable services performed during the war by Charles M. Schwab as head of the Emergency Fleet corporation and J. Leonard Replogle as director general of steel production. Each of them has been made a knight of the Legion of Honor.

The decorations were awarded the two Americans here at a big outdoor meeting by M. Casanave, of France, representing the French government. There were numerous persons of national prominence present at the ceremony, among whom was General Goethals, who was a guest of honor.

Everyone in East To Come West, Declares Anderson

W. W. Anderson, a member of the party of twenty-five Santa Anans who left here last week in a car bound for Columbus, O., says everyone "back East" is bent on coming to California. A card from Anderson reads as follows:

"Lincoln Park, Chicago, Sept. 7th.

"The Santa Ana car arrived in Chicago today at 12 o'clock. All went out to Lincoln Park, took dinner and walked through park. Now 3:30. Will go back to city and take car at 9 o'clock tonight for Columbus, where we will arrive at 7 o'clock in morning. We are on the Pasadena Special. All very well and having a good time."

"Would advise you to buy ALL of California as these people are all coming out and they will need it all."

"Steve Clark says he would not give his chances of being elected city marshal of Santa Ana for everything from San Bernardino to the Colorado line. Santa Ana looks good to us."

PEARL WORTH $750 IS FOUND IN LARGE CLAM

ALBANY, Ore., Sept. 12.—A pearl, probably worth $750 was found grown to the interior of one of the sides of a large Uno clam, picked up by J. G. Crawford recently in Bryant's Park. Mr. Crawford found the clam in the willow bushes about 200 yards from the point of junction between the Calapooia and Willamette rivers. The Uno clam measures 12 millimeters in length, 4 1/2 millimeters in width, and the pearl was 3 millimeters long, 2 millimeters wide and 1/2 millimeter high.

SANTA ANA WOMAN IS CHASED BY BOLSHEVSKI IN SIBERIA

Miss Reba Dobson and Arthur Anderson Have Experience at Chilibriessk

At least two Santa Anans were in the contingent that had to evacuate Chilibriessk, Siberia, in July when the Bolsheviki invaded that place. The two Santa Anans were Arthur Anderson, whose mother now resides at Garden Grove, and Miss Reba Dobson, daughter of Dr. G. H. Dobson of this city. The former is with the army and the latter is a Red Cross nurse. Writing to her father under date of July 29, Miss Dobson says:

Arthur Anderson and I have had some wonderful experiences over here. The Bolsheviki got too close to us and we had to leave in a hurry. When he gets home he will call and tell you all about it.

We had to vacate Chilibriessk and it took us eight days to get to Omsk, which, in ordinary times, we could make in thirty-six hours. It was some sight to see people living on top of box cars with their few worldly possessions hanging on steps—just any place to ride away on.

So many of the Russian armies sent to the front are turning Bolsheviki. When the army retreated to Chilibriessk the mayor ordered the city evacuated. They got us women folk and patients out on various trains and some of the men stayed and got out about a million dollars work of supplies.

Some day I will tell you all about it—I wouldn't have missed it for the world. Dr. Newman, our patient, is doing nicely. We were afraid he couldn't stand the moving, but he did. I am now at Tomsk. This is where the big university is and we are housed in a university building. I am very well and enjoy living here.

USES SUGAR INSTEAD OF A GUN IN JAPAN

In a word, the civilization of Korea was and is a reality. Japan is now on trial before the world to show whether her annexation of the old treasure land means a blessing or a curse—to either or both the Korean or the Japanese people. She may well consider whether her own existence does not depend upon a righteous treatment of the people whom she expects to assimilate. Perhaps in personal experience lies an allegory. Fifty years ago, a call came to America from Japan's far interior, for a young man "to organize schools on the American principle." The writer accepted the call, but no insurance company would, except at a very high premium, take the risk and issue a policy on his life. Friends thought him a fool for "trusting himself among such a people," where a brace of swords formed part of the daily costume of gentlemen, and in which joi (alien-exPELLERS and foreign-hATERS, were sufficiently numerous, and where assassinations of Europeans were common—two taking place during the first month of the writer's arrival. A revolver kept in the left breast pocket, whence, for urgent need, it could be drawn quickly, seemed very necessary, and certainly was comforting. However, when settled down in the interior city of the "Happy Well" his eyes were opened. The American teacher laid away his Smith & Wesson six-shooter, nor did he take it up again while in Japan. Instead, he kept his pockets stored with lumps of sugar for the children he met in his walks, and won all hearts by living the normal life of a decent American.—Asia Magazine.

FOLLOWING DEER FOR HALF DAY MAKES KILL

Joe Galloway, 18 years of age, today is some happy boy. He killed a deer yesterday in Belle canyon. It was his first kill. It was a two-pointer, weighing about 110 pounds, although the young man declared it weighed a ton, after packing it for a long distance.

Galloway is employed by Sleeper & Waller at their Trabuco ranch. Wednesday he was out hunting and late in the afternoon wounded a deer. He was certain that he had inflicted a wound that would handicap the animal in roaming the mountains and hunted until dark in an effort to locate it, but failed. He resumed the chase at daylight yesterday morning and at noon was rewarded by coming upon the deer upon a side hill. The deer was standing on the side hill in full view of the hunter; the boy's gun cracked and the deer was killed. Proudly and excitedly he hastened up the hill to secure his prize and then commenced the hard work of getting the carcass down to his wagon.

The kill was made in Belle Canyon near the J. C. Joplin ranch, and it was to this point that the lad had to carry his heavy game.

Galloway is a brother of Mrs. Jas. Walker of this city and he sent her the head, which she will have treated, and a quarter of the deer.

NEWPORT BEACH FIRE LADDIES HAVE JOYFEST

The fire fighting "bunch" of Newport last night indulged in a joyfest at the firehall at Balboa and the boys "laid to" with the same zest they display when engaged in battling with flames to protect the property of a resident when a fire breaks out.

Capt. Jackson was the "big guy" in preparing the cats and the spread he put before the boys of the department was one that made those who passed and witnessed the hilarity and saw the table display, envious.

There were plenty of good things to eat, this being the principal feature of the evening, and while the property preservers of the popular resort discussed the edibles prepared by Jackson they also discussed current topics and indulged in a little side play that afforded great amusement to those who were fortunate enough to be "in" on the doings.

The department maintains a social fund, and this sometimes is augmented by the boys "chipping in" and swelling it to proportions sufficient to pull off a stunt like that of last night.

The fire department of Newport Beach is composed of a bunch of live men and when they get together for an evening of sociability, there is plenty of life.

WINTERSBURG FOLK JOIN CELEBRATION

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, Sept. 12.—The Wintersburg-Smeltzer section was well represented at the reception for soldiers and sailors at the Orange County Park Admission day, among which were numbers of local service men who have returned home. Between thirty and thirty-five are on the local roll of honor and a goodly number of these men were in attendance.

Miss Lizzie Gothard, one of the local committee of the Orange County War Service Recognition Association, represented this community in the distribution of medals to the men.

Among people from this section noticed at the park were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mallett and family, Mrs. R. L. Draper, daughters, Misses Bessie and Flossie; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bradbury and family, Mrs. C. H. Maddux and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Culver and family, Mr. and Mrs. N. Walton and family, L. L. Letson and family, Mrs. Mary E. Clemens and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Graham and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moore and family, Otis Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Isenor and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Cady and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Worby and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Pryor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sprinkle, Misses Mary and Florete Crane, Guerdner Nichols, Velma Nichols, D. D. Gardner, son, Hayden, Rev. Nakamura, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gothard and family, Dr. H. A. Huff, Ralph Huff, Mr. and Mrs. H. Larter, Miss Florence Larter, Donald Larter, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore, Ray Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. James Haptonstall, Mrs. John Kettler, Mrs. J. O. Pyle, Billie Kettler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ulrich, daughter, Miss Cleo Ulrich.

WHERE DANGER LIES

"I should think you'd be afraid that some of these shooters would mistake you for the bear," said the amateur sportsman.

"Oh, that ain't where the danger is," said the guide. "So long as they take me for the bear, I'm safe. It's when they're shootin' at the bear that I have to look out."

ORANGE PERSONALS AND NEWS NOTES

ORANGE, Sept. 12.—This party will not be a Party of Politics, but a Party of Pep. It is to be a Young People's Party and will be held for the first time in the social rooms of the Christian church, this evening at 8 o'clock. As this party is not allied with the Populist Party, socks will be worn, but very few whiskers.

It will be a party for all the young people of Orange and vicinity who are vitally interested in organizing for better physical, social, educational and religious life. All who are between 16 and 35 are to be included in the first draft. Any older people who feel they would like to serve behind the lines are urgently requested to come, and aid in launching an "over-the-top" campaign for the Young People of the Orange churches. Good program and "eats."

The mid-year promotions will be discontinued this year in the Orange schools. Another plan of a more effective nature will be substituted. Beginning pupils may not be entered but once during the year. Children who are 6 years old before the latter part of January, 1920, will be admitted to first-year classes during the first month of school. The same conditions apply to kindergarten children who will be four and a half years old the latter part of January.

News has just reached Orange of the secret marriage of Hugh N. Claypool, formerly of Orange and now of Los Angeles, to Miss Esther Emma Brown of Los Angeles. The ceremony was performed in Santa Ana. The groom is a son of M. N. Claypool, station agent for the Santa Fe here and is a returned soldier.

Villa Park has again gone "over the top," this time with a subscription for painting the Villa Park church and parsonage. The amount needed was $290 and as usual it was over-subscribed, $300 being raised.

Santa Ana Man Sees the Spot Where Archduke Was Slain at Sarajevo

are very interesting. We were lucky to see inside of one and they are very beautiful. They have a place where the people that go in to pray wash their face and feet and go in the church barefooted or with slippers on. At 12:00 noon the high priest gets up in the minarets and faces the east and calls the flock together. A minaret is like a round monument and is built about two hundred feet high.

"We saw other interesting things. We saw where the archduke made his famous fatal speech, where he was attacked and where he died. We saw the Franz Joseph palace which is now used as a barracks.

"We were with an American speaking Serbian and were lucky to get hold of several pictures of the killing of the archduke as they do not allow them to sell them publicly now. There is an old Roman bridge in Sarajevo over a thousand years old and is still in good shape.

"We were all through the Turkish town and it was very interesting. The women still wear veils and I had great sport in trying to take their pictures. Some of the women wear trousers like a man, while some of the men wear dresses. These women would die before they would show their faces to anyone from a Christian people.

"We heard several Hungarian orchestras and they were very good. They are all violins, cellos or basses. They certainly know harmony and play everything from "Morning, Noon and Night in Vienna," to the "Chicken Reel."

"Some one taught them how to play "Yama Yama Man" so they handed that to us every time we came in. "The next day we went out to the museum which is the most interesting that I have ever seen. They have old bestrified articles that date back way before Christ. All the implements of warfare that date back B. C. also. There were wax figures of every different race over here, a room of mining, a butterfly room, stuffed animals and birds, every kind of fish and snake and I cannot take time to say what else. One of the best collections of coins in the world is supposed to be there. Good gold and silver coins date back to Nero's and Caesar's time.

"In the afternoon we went out of town a ways and visited the different cemeteries. They were very interesting. Every different religion has its own cemetery. There is one where all the soldiers that died in the hospital at Sarajevo are buried. Nearly every nation in the world has subjects buried there. There is a large statue of a lion in the middle of it, which means symbol of strength.

"They had a big celebration on King Peter's birthday and had parades and processions in honor of him. "Most of the Serbian soldiers are now in the American uniform and how much better they look! The next day was a feast, so we all ate our part, of course. One time I can always do my part at a celebration is when it comes time to eat.

"The next day we went out to a pleasure resort called Shidza. It is a very pretty place with several fine hotels and a sulphur hot springs. Many people go there for treatments. We walked out about two miles to a trout fishing place and had a fine trout dinner. "The next day we left for Mastar after a very pleasant time in Sarajevo. We went down in the day time so were able to see the scenery, only surpassed by the Panama canal. Here we pass through the Prenj Alps. It is a long grade coming down and is so steep that they have to use the cog system. Three engines take us up and down.

"Mastar was a very pretty place, much smaller than Sarajevo. There is nothing much unusually interesting there outside of Turkish forts and castles. This is also a Turkish city. We were there only a day as our boat left Methovic a day earlier than we expected. When we arrived in Spalato we were quite surprised to find that the Olympia had gone to Fiume. The French and Italians were fighting up there so our Admiral went up to take charge of things. The Pittsburg came in and relieved the Olympia at Fiume, the Olympia coming back here for reboiling our boilers. We reported aboard the ex-Austrian ship, Zrinegi until the Olympia returned. We expect to go back to Fiume as soon as our boilers are finished.

"No telling when we will ever get back to God's country again. If these Jugo-Slavo and wops ever stop fighting, we might have some chance."

Railroad Man Gives Good Advice

"Several years ago I was under treatment of a stomach specialist for 5 months, 3 weeks of which were spent in a hospital. Another stomach specialist told me I had gall stones and that an operation was necessary. I did not want to have this. I lost 45 lbs. in weight. Talking with a brakeman one day, he told me of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and since taking it I have gained 16 lbs. and am feeling fine. I am advising others to try it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At druggists everywhere.—Adv.

FULLERTON MEN PLAN TO BUILD MORE HOMES

Association Is Formed For the Erection of Houses and Apartments

family. What we want is something which will house many families.

"If fifty men would put up $500 each it would combine a fund which would construct apartment houses or bungalow courts which would house many families. If we have not confidence enough to believe that our city is solid, we might just as well quit talking about building.

"The housing proposition is the most important problem which confronts the city today. We not only need houses but we need business blocks, as people who desire to engage in business here are turned away everywhere."

This and much more along the same line was said by the major, all of which was so true and apparent that it went straight home.

Major Marks also stated that he had talked to one of the directors of the Fullerton Improvement Association and was told that the stock could be purchased. As they have an ideal site for apartments and courts he favored buying the stock and if not to start a new company. "Anyway, let's do something," he exclaimed.

"How many of you gentlemen here will subscribe to the building fund?" he shouted, and many held up their hands. "How much will you give?" he continued. "I will give $500, to start," said C. C. Chapman, and the proposition was off to an "excellent start."

W. J. Wickersheim stated that he would support the proposition to the best of his ability and gave $500, only to raise his offer to $1000 a few minutes later.

Besides the above, F. C. Krause subscribed $1000, G. W. Finch $1000; Dr. J. Chilton, $500; Fullerton News (by Ralph Brown), $500; E. W. Dean, $500; Dr. J. H. Lang, $500; Robert Strain, $500, making a total of $10,000.

Chapman stated that the Fullerton Improvement Association was organized for the same purpose of which Major Marks spoke, not to make money, but to improve the city. He was heartily in favor of the proposition. He stated further that the Fullerton Improvement Association was a going and paying concern and was paying interest on the investment in spite of the fact that it was not organized for any purpose other than to improve the city.

"Let us keep the movement going and have something to cheer for," K. Benchley, who is now in the hospital, continued Chapman. "Mr. Benchley thinks of no other place but Fullerton and if he had a million dollars he would spend it in helping to improve the city. Go to it, Major. I wish you the best of luck," continued Chapman, amid terrific handclapping.

Major Marks made a motion that the president appoint a committee to go among the business men and residents for the purpose of securing subscribers to the enterprise, which committee was appointed as follows: Major Marks, chairman; G. W. Finch and W. J. Wickersheim. One of the telling points made by Major Marks was that he was living in a house that was built 32 years ago. It was not modern in any respect, but he was glad to get it. "But," he added, "it has been sold and I will have to get out. I don't know what I can do unless I buy a house and put the other fellow out in the street."

From the enthusiasm shown and the healthy amount subscribed at the meeting, it is believed that $50,000 or $75,000 will be raised within a very short time, when things in the housing line will get under way.

SPANISH PAPER PLANNED BY REV. NAVA

First Issue Will Appear Sept. 15, at Mexican Independence Day Celebration

Santa Ana is to have a Spanish language weekly paper, according to plans just announced by Rev. J. C. Nava, pastor of the Mexican M. E. church. Rev. Nava will issue the publication in the hope that it will be of educational value to the many Mexican residents of this vicinity and will help to cement the cordial relations between his people and the Americans.

The first issue will be published on September 15, at the opening of this celebration will be bigger and which will be held September 15-16. Mexican Independence day celebration, better, it is planned, than any of those previously held here.

The first copy of the new paper, "Amor Patrio," will contain on the first page, surrounded by a red and green border, a picture of Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla, Mexico's George Washington, who proclaimed the liberty of Mexico at 11 p. m. on September 15, 1810.

Rev. Nava believes the new paper will help him in his work on behalf of the Mexican population and hopes to have the financial support of Santa Ana business men in his newspaper venture.

PERIPATETIC PHILOSOPHER

He overtook him swinging down the boulevard with his chest out the morning the strike came on.

"Rotten business—this strike," he said.

"Finest thing that ever happened," he said. "Strikes saved my life—made a man of me."

"Union man?" we asked.

"Naw. Office slave. Two years ago I was an anemic, dyspeptic, neurasthenic, hypochondriac slave of the desk. I had been trying to cut out the heavy midday lunches and to start walking down in the morning for two years—couldn't make up my mind to do it. Then there came along that waiters' strike and I cut out the restaurant—brought a couple of sandwiches down and Fletcherized them at noon. I haven't ridden in a street car since. I've gained 20 pounds, never have been sick a day since, have a clear head for my work, never felt better in my life. There's just one more strike I'd like to see."

"What's that?"
"Pie-makers. I'm still a little overfond of pie."—Kansas City Star.

Experts or Theorists— Which?

The packing industry is intricate, complex—far more so than the railroads or the telegraph.

Every day multiplying needs of society increase its problems and multiplying responsibilities demand more of it.

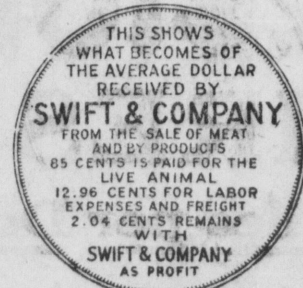

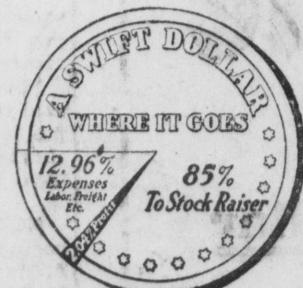

Highly trained experts, specialists of years' experience, thinkers and creative men, devote their lives, their energies, their activities, to solving the problems of the packing industry and meeting its widening duties.

Swift & Company is not a few dozen packing plants, a few hundred branch houses, a few thousand refrigerator cars, and a few million dollars of capital, but an organization of such men. It is the experience, intelligence, initiative and activity which operates this physical equipment.

Can this intelligence, this experience, this initiative and creative effort which handles this business at a profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources, be fostered through the intervention of political theorists, however pure their purposes? Or be replaced by legislation? Does Congress really think that it can?

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar". It will interest you.

Here's How Folks!

SO many people have asked how we can sell such an excellent quality of Coffee at the price we do. Here's the answer:

FIRST—We handle ONLY pure unadulterated coffee (no substitutes) scientifically blended in our Los Angeles warehouse.

SECOND—A man who KNOWS HOW roasts the coffee fresh daily. This eliminates any possibility of stale coffee. The chaff is extracted, assuring you clean coffee.

THIRD—It is ground fresh, just as you need it. We do not carry any ground coffee at all.

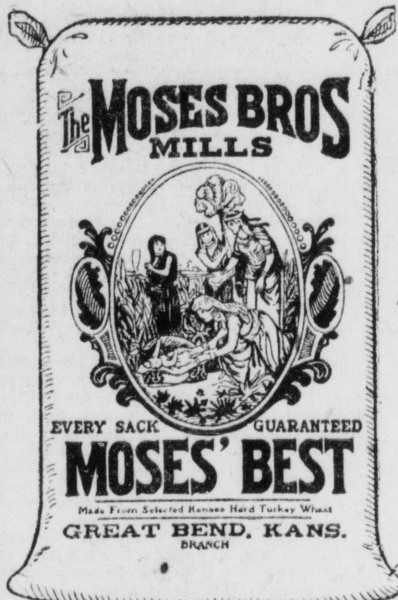

FOURTH—We buy direct from the importer for a number of stores, thus cutting out "in between" profits, holding the price down and keeping the quality up.

FIFTH—The quality and price are always right. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

TALBERT NOTES

TALBERT, Sept. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and little daughter, and the former's brother-in-law, Sergeant Kenneth Sargeant, and wife, and Perry Jones drove to the County Park Tuesday to attend the service men's reception and spent a pleasant day.

Mrs. S. E. Talbert has received a card from her sister, Mrs. Ben Rogers, telling of the safe arrival of the family in Holtville Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and the children made the trip to the valley by machine, leaving here at 6:20 in the morning and arriving at Imperial at 7 p. m. They found the weather unusually cool upon their arrival at home.

Next Sunday Rev. C. Raymond Gray of Los Angeles, will preach at 11:00 o'clock at the local M. E. church, South, and will hold the fourth quarterly conference for the churches of this charge, which includes beside the Talbert church those of Greenville and Bolsa. Rev. Gray, who is presiding elder of the Los Angeles district, is also expected to preach here in the evening and at Bolsa in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tammany Vincent left Thursday of this week for Grangeville, Idaho, to remain. It is but four months since they came here from Idaho and homesickness is the one reason for their return. Before leaving, they disposed of their household furniture.

Frank Harper is irrigating his alfalfa field on the Warner ranch this week.

The Cox boys are plowing the barley land on their father's ranch this week to kill out the grass before the rains set in.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Walker and family motored to Los Angeles Tuesday.

Mrs. F. D. Plavan and niece, Mrs. Harold Swift, and baby accompanied Miss Alma Plavan, who has been on a visit here upon her return to Ferris Monday of this week. Mrs. Plavan expects to remain for a week at the Lakeview ranch with her son, Paul Plavan, and Mrs. Swift will be the guest of Miss Alma Plavan for a couple of weeks.

Miss Grace Malan of the California

Get What You Want
When You Want It

The housewife who does her buying on the Gerrard Groceries plan gets what she wants when she wants it. Her groceries never come too late for dinner. Her groceries are never mixed with her neighbor's. The groceries selected in the store by the purchaser always come fully up to the expectation of the cook and what's more—they are bought at a real saving in cash.

THE PLACE WHERE YOU GET BACK THE MOST CHANGE

hospital, spent a few hours at the F. D. Plavan home Sunday evening, having run down during her hours of duty.

Mrs. Sara Warner returned Thursday from a pleasant week at Huntington Beach, where she was a guest at the home of her son, I. A. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gislser and family, their son, Walter Gislser, and wife of this place, and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stoffel, of Anaheim, formed one of the motor parties who went to the park Tuesday to attend the soldiers and sailors' reception. Three service men were in the party. Walter and Tom Gislser and Bernard Stoffel.

A few local bean ranchers are now harvesting their crop, but the majority of the vines about here are still too green to cut. S. E. Talbert finished piling ninety acres of his bean crop on the east side of the track Wednesday. John Pope, Harry Fulton, Helm and Courages are others who have begun to cut their crops.

L. T. Wells has received a letter from his nephew, Walter Wells, written at Chicago, September 2nd. The party who are making the trip overland to New York were making good time, he stated, having a most delightful trip and expected to reach their destination within a week.

A bunch of cattle belonging to Louis Moulton of 11 Toro are being pastured on F. D. Plavan's beet field this week.

Mrs. L. C. Rix and children of El Centro, were visitors at the Arnold Walker home the latter part of the week, and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Walker and family took them to Los Angeles, where they are visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Alvah Andrews. Mrs. Rix was called in by the serious illness of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Von Schrititz, who is very low at the Santa Ana hospital. Mrs. Rix and Mrs. Von Schrititz are close friends and Mrs. Rix's plans for her return home depend altogether on the outcome of the child's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Talbert, Harvey Studebaker, Gordon Talbert and Ashley Davis drove together to the park Tuesday and attended the service men's reception.

A number of Talbert people included among those observed at the welcome home demonstration Tuesday at Orange County Park were: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Borckard, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Lamb and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lamb and family, Mrs. Geo. Bradley, Miss Grace Bradley, R. L. Collins and family, F. D. Plavan and family, Albert Brandt, Harvey Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wells and family and Mr. Wells' son, C. W. Wells, and family drove to the park Tuesday for the day. Upon their return they found that Mr. Wells' cousin, Mrs. Fisher, and husband of San Pedro, had been there during their absence. A note to this effect was found on the dining-room table amid the remains of a luncheon to which the guests had invited themselves upon finding the family away.

Fresh and Cured Meats

Owing to our great increase in business we insist that our patrons get phone orders in at least thirty minutes before deliveries leave on routes. Deliveries leave in the morning at 8:30 and 10:30; in the afternoon at 2:30 and 4:30.

WORK IN CHINA DESCRIBED BY MISSIONARIES

Westminster Folks Told of Care Being Given Lepers and Others

WESTMINSTER, Sept. 12.—China was the subject of the missionary meeting for this month which was held at the manse Wednesday afternoon, the pastor, W. T. Wardle, conducting the devotionals. Those present had the unusual privilege of listening to Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelly, who are on a furlough from their mission field at Coehke, Hainan, China, and who drove down from Los Angeles for the afternoon.

Mrs. Kelly gave a very interesting account of her work, she having been for ten years a missionary in India from the Methodist church, and after her marriage to Dr. Kelly for sixteen years in Hainan from the Presbyterian denomination. Among other things Mrs. Kelly told of a remarkable answer to prayer while responsible for the providing for 5000 orphans in India. When her funds were low and hardly enough to provide food for one day, there were still many coming to be cared for. While praying for direction, the verse which she had not thought of for months was flashed into her mind, "Enlarge the place of thy tent, spare not, lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes." Immediately she started out to look for a place to house the children and was offered an old inn, where she later placed 200 orphans. The next morning she received a check for $5,000 from W. E. Blackstone, author of "Jesus is Coming."

Showed Native Costumes

She showed some of the articles of clothing worn by the native women, including headgear, coat and what she called the original hobbie skirt, and a long, narrow towel which is thrown over one shoulder for use between courses at a feast. These costumes sometimes number sixty-nine. The coat is elaborately trimmed on the back only as the women always turn the back toward the men.

When Dr. Kelly first began in Coehke he had only one room, in which to receive patients suffering from all kinds of diseases, from smallpox to the bubonic plague. On trying to obtain better quarters the only place they would allow him was on the outskirts of the city, where they thought the "foreign devils" could not do much harm. They were able to add to this and now have eleven acres, with a hospital, chapel, boarding school and chapel.

In this part of China there are only four doctors to eight million people. There are thirty-six chapels and 1200 attendants.

She told of the opium fiends who sometimes sell the roof off their houses, let their wives go in rags and their children hungry in order to obtain the drug. One opium scoundrel whom everybody feared accepted the gospel, was cured of the drug habit and was now known by the name of "Old Uncle Blessing."

Work Among Lepers

She described their work among the lepers and how it had been greatly blessed. She said there were lepers in nineteen states of our Union; that there were twenty in San Francisco, six or seven in Alameda, one in Los Angeles and several in Long Beach, one of whom was found selling candy to children on the street.

Dr. Kelly began by saying the lepers were coming to our doors because the command of Christ to cleanse the leper had not been obeyed. He told of the international, interdenominational society for segregating lepers and of a society in one of the eastern states which was supplying the money for nine lepers, thirty dollars being required for each.

A boy named Wilbur Chapman, son of the president of this society, thought the number of lepers should be ten, so took three dollars that had been given him and bought a pig. He fed this pig for 30 and so the tenth leper was provided for. This incident led to the making of little banks in the shape of a pig, which are sold for fifteen cents by Fleming Revel, 156 Fifth avenue, New York. It is for the contributions to this international society. A number of those present took the address in order to send for these banks. Through this society Dr. Kelly expects a $10,000 hospital for lepers will be erected in Hainan.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try It!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates—Adv.

Maddux and son Albert of Wintersburg, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Larter of Westminster, left Monday morning for Lyon Springs, in Ventura county, where the men of the party are enjoying a hunting trip. They have been on several trips previously and are making the most of the hunting season, which closes the 15th. They are expected home the last of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Farrar of Pasadena arrived Monday at the home of the former's father, B. A. Farrar, preparatory to an early start for Orange County Park Tuesday morning, where the two couples spent an enjoyable day at the service men's reception. Lunch at noon and in the evening, was spread by the party and enjoyed with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Farrar and family of Huntington Beach, who were also park visitors for the day.

Mrs. H. Larter went to Covina Saturday to the home of her brother, Hiram Stephens, and remained as his guest over the week-end. Mrs. Larter made the trip with Miss Mildred Donohue, who had been a guest at the Larter home and who attended to Azusa, preparatory to the opening Monday of the Azusa high school, of which she will be one of the faculty.

Mrs. Dave Johnson of Whittier was a guest the first of the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. T. Stockton. She arrived Monday and on Tuesday was one of a party composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stockton, son Maurice, and nephew, Grover Conatser, of Wintersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Lamb and little daughters of Talbert, who attended the reception for the service boys at the park. Mrs. Johnston left for home Wednesday morning, being taken to Whittier by Mr. and Mrs. Stockton and Maurice, who remained as her guests for the day.

D. D. Campbell was one of the local service men who attended the reception at Orange County Park Tuesday. He was accompanied by his wife and took as their guest Miss Flossie Ling of Santa Ana.

Ed Hyder left Monday for Escondido in company with his brother from Santa Ana and they remained over until Wednesday evening, taking in the "Grape Day" celebration held in that city. Hyder formerly resided in Escondido before coming here.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

Who Benefits?

YOU—and your family—but first and foremost YOU.

Suppose you intend to open a $1000 VICTORY ACCOUNT. You deposit about $7.67 each month.

Either yourself or some member of your family is insured when you open your account, and should the insured person die, this Bank calls upon the Insurance Company for enough money to increase your balance to $1000 at once, even though you have only deposited a few days, months or years.

If no death occurs you will be worth and actually have $1000 in ten years.

You can take out one or more $500 accounts (the deposits are about $3.84 a piece) and have $500 insurance on different members of your family.

There are many, many ways to work it. You may pick the combination that suits you best.

Come in and talk it over with anyone in the bank.
